

Filigree and lace drill

Name: _____

Trace each gray model with a liner brush, then paint it again in the empty space beside it. Thin, then thicker, then thin. Lesson 09.2.

C-scroll

A tracing exercise for a C-scroll. It features a solid gray model of a C-scroll on the left, a dashed gray model in the middle, and a single black dot on the right for independent practice.

S-scroll

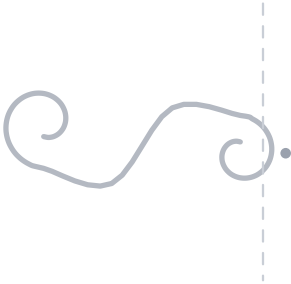

A tracing exercise for an S-scroll. It features a solid gray model of an S-scroll on the left, a dashed gray model in the middle, and a single black dot on the right for independent practice.

Vine with curls

A tracing exercise for a vine with curls. It features a solid gray model of a vine with a curl on the left, a dashed gray model in the middle, and a single black dot on the right for independent practice.

Mirror it: paint the right half to match

A tracing exercise for a mirror image. It features a solid gray model of a wavy line with a curl on the left, a dashed gray model in the middle, and a single black dot on the right for independent practice.

Lace edge: scallops, then a dot in each, then tiny dots outside

A tracing exercise for a lace edge. It features a solid gray model of a scalloped edge on the left, a dashed gray model in the middle, and a single black dot on the right for independent practice.